▲ THE SOMA-Q SHIFT

Choose your response instead of reacting.

Three questions, asked in order. Each one keeps pressure from running the moment.

1

Notice

What just got activated?

Meet it with curiosity, not judgment.

Catch it early, before it becomes a reaction.

2

Locate

Where do I feel it in my body?

Chest, throat, belly, jaw, shoulders, legs.

Find the signal while it is still small.

3

Choose

What helps me stay with myself right now?

Slow exhale, orient, pause, return to the body.

Come back to steady, then decide.

The goal is not to stop the thought. The goal is to recognize the pattern of activation, meet it with curiosity, allow it, and shift.
